

“faking aim at poverty”

Saturday, February 27 – location TBA

Ladies, 18 years old & up are invited to enjoy a fun markswomanship competition with a variety of weapons. We'll enjoy a morning of set-up, practice & fun. Following lunch, we'll compete in a variety of different markswomanship challenges. For more information, see Donny Abernathy or Tim McWhirter, or email us at bethelnewcaney@yahoo.com. Visit us on the web at www.bethelnewcaney.com.

Cost: $35/contestant (price covers contest expenses & lunch).
First Place Prize: An "In-Honor-Of" $200 donation to benefit widowed & abandoned moms & their children in Guatemala.

Register by returning the bottom portion of this page with your full payment to Bethel Baptist Church, 23307 Roberts Rd, New Caney, TX 77357 (checks made payable to Bethel Baptist Church). Registration closes Sunday, February 21. *Contestants will NOT be allowed to use their personal weapons in competition, & are discouraged from bringing them to the challenge.
